

NAME: F. Steve Mulligan

Position for which Nominated: AMCA Vice President

Education: University of Santa Clara, Santa Clara, CA, 1972, B.S. Biology
California State University, Fresno, Fresno, CA, 1979, M.A. Biology

Current Position: District Manager, Consolidated Mosquito Abatement District,
Selma, CA, 1991-Present

Mosquito Control Positions Held: Staff Research Associate IV, Mosquito Control
Research Laboratory (Fresno), University of California, Berkeley, 1972-1990

State/Regional/National/International Association Positions or Committee Assignments:

Mosquito and Vector Control Association of California, President 2001
Chairman, MVCAC Vector Control Research Committee, 2002-2007
University of California Statewide Mosquito Research Program Grant Review
Committee, Co-Chair 2004-2007
UC Public Advisory Committee on Mosquito Research, Member 2002-2008
AMCA Regional Director, South Pacific Region, 2006-Present
Wing Beats, Member, Editorial Review Board, 2008-Present
World Mosquito Control Association, Board Member representing AMCA, 2009

Notable Accomplishments:

Member, Select group invited to participate in Stakeholders Meeting of the Integrated
Urban Malaria Control Program, Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania, October, 24, 2006
Collaborating Participant in NIH/Fogarty International Center Planning Grant for International Malaria Clinical, Operational & Health Services Research Training
Grants (Dr. G. Lanzaro, PI) to develop a malaria control operational research training program in Kenya, 2009-2010
Elected Member, Board of Trustees, Sanger Unified School District, Sanger, CA, 2000-2008