

NAME: Thomas R. Wilmot

Position for which Nominated: AMCA Vice President

Education: B.S. in Entomology, Montana State University
M.S. in Entomology, Oregon State University
M.P.H. and Ph.D. in Public Health, University of California, Los Angeles

Current Position: Director, Midland County (Michigan) Mosquito Control

Mosquito Control Positions Held:

Entomologist, Midland County Mosquito Control, 1984-2000
Mosquito Control Seasonal, Los Angeles Southeast MCD, 1981
Director, Yakima County, Washington MCD #1, 1978-1980
Mosquito Control Seasonal, Cascade County, Montana, 1970-1975

State/Regional/National/International Association Positions or Committee Assignments:

AMCA North Central Regional Director, 2005 - present
JAMCA Editorial Board, 1989-1992 (Chairman, 1990 - 1992)
AMCA Annual Meeting Local Arrangements Chairman, 2006
Wing Beats: Associate Editor, 2002-present
Society for Vector Ecology North Central Regional Director, 1990 - 1999
Michigan Mosquito Control Association President, 1989

Academic Positions Held/Awards:

Michigan Mosquito Control Association Distinguished Service Award
National Association of Counties Achievement Award
Adjunct Instructor in Biology, Saginaw Valley State University